MILDRED BARRY GARVIN PRIZE

The prize is named in honor of Mildred Barry Garvin who served the 27th Assembly District in Essex County from 1978 - 1988. She was a research specialist and director of field experience for the Graduate School of Administration at Rutgers, Newark. In honor of her contributions to state politics and education, the Mildred Barry Garvin Prize was awarded by the New Jersey Historical Commission for the first time in 1995.

The prize carries an award of $1,500 to a New Jersey teacher, guidance counselor, or school librarian for outstanding teaching of black American history at any grade level between kindergarten and high school. It is also awarded to individuals demonstrating outstanding performance in a related activity, such as, developing curriculum materials.
